

NextGenCH is proud to invite you to our next event:

“How to get any job – The do’s and don’ts of online networking”

How is your LinkedIn profile looking? Is your Xing ready for the world? Does your CV open doors for you? Or could they do with an update?

Come to our exclusive event to learn how to excel at any job interview or application process from DKSH HR-manager Joel Wyss. He will share with you what he looks for in evaluating candidates' profiles from a HR perspective.

You will learn what (not) to include in your CV, how to network successfully and how to present yourself in an online environment. On top, you will get a new professional photo taken for your online profile and CV, because honestly, that cropped holiday photo will not cut it.

When: Thursday, 23 November 2017
